Client Feedback:

- It looks really good, big fan of the ‘path of least resistance’ so letting Printful’s quickstore handle everything works better. Podcasts being a copy/paste and click button works wonderfully, follows the 2 click rule. The request forms are really cool and help make things simpler. Link formatting in Liner Notes would be nice if they add the website logos next to them.

Who Dids Whats

Traigh Scott: Set up the new events calendar, created a merch page that connects to Printful quickstore, and small bug/feature tweaks.

Cass Alcorn: Created the Table of Contents/ Index for the Blogs, wrote a significant amount of tests for Jam Sessions, and wrote a few tests for Backstage Pass.

Kc Weaver: Created submission request email form plugins for liner notes, blogs, and calendar.

Jacob Clark: Podcast plugin, optimization of blog button loading times
